MONDAY.....JUNE 25, 1877. [Communicated.] General Mahone Against Convict Labor in Competition with Honest Labor and Private Enterprise.

RICHMOND, June 8, 1877. To General William Mahone, Petersburg. Va.:

General,-The undersigned respectfully desire to know your views on the penitentiary-convict-labor question-how its competition with honest labor may be prevented, and the effect of the remedy upon the general welfare and prosperity of the Commonwealth.

An early reply will greatly oblige yours respectfully. A. W. TYREE, GEORGE PERRIN, JAMES FLEMING, WILLIAM LYNCH, JAMES DILLON, THOS. FITZPATRICK. THOMAS FANING, JOHN MCCAFFREY, WILLIAM DESNEW, J. H. BROOKS, GEO. G. MATTHEWS, SAM'L F. MCGEHEE, JAMES HOWEL, A. T. MINOR, JAMES DIAMOND, DANIEL CHALLONER, JOHN HOLLOWAY. PATRICK H. WOODS, D. SMITH REDFORD, H. R. MILLER, Louis A. Behle, W. H. GARY, ALBERT ROSE, W. B. HOGE. WM. B. COOK, JR., WM. B. COOK, JOHN W. GENTRY, W. H. HALEY, JOHN H. BAPTIST, C. WENDLINGER, and fifty-two others.

Your earnest consideration is solicited. A full and free expression of opinion is de-JCL. L. WRIGHT, Director-General Workingmen's League. June 20, 1877.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 21, 1877. Gentlemen,—Free as I feel to express any opinion I have, when it would not be an intrusion, I have had, and sincerely have, an aversion to any parade of myself before the public. This disposition led me some days ago to refuse permission for the publication of some views I had hurriedly expressed in connection with the subject on which you specifically desire to know my

The immediate interests you have in the matter entitle you to a respectful consideration, and to compliance with the requests submitted. Briefly then, in response to your wish, I beg to say :

I. That some other resort should be found for the useful employment of our "penitentiary convicts" than in conflict with honest labor-skilled and unskilled-whether in the granite quarries or upon other tields of private enterprise. It is surely not the interest of the State to wage such an unfriendly competition against a large and essential class of her people, and in depression of her industrial development, as comes from that use of her convicts.

The mere return in the way of hire from that manner of employment of them falls beneath the dignity of the Commonwealth in the face of the injury which it works to an industry and enterprise it is to her better and more permanent prosperity and her duty to encourage and foster.

II. Better-infinitely better-for all the State, that those unfortunate people should be employed upon the extension of the canal and in the construction of new works for the convenience of the people and the development of her resources, and in the formation of an improved system of country

There is no application of the surplus labor of the penitentiary which would yield indirectly but certainly a larger return to the State than that to the formation of improved country roads. Nothing would so quickly inspire improvements wherever they were made, advance values, and bring to us a class of settlers most needed. Nothing would promote more earnestly the expansion of any of our cities and towns than well-improved roads leading from them; and the return from enhanced values would shortly be yielding the Commonwealth a handsome, permanent hire for a labor as now employed of but little and only temporary moment porary moment.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, &c., WILLIAM MAHONE. To Jul. L. Wright, Director-General, &c.;

Messrs. George Perrin, A. W. Tyree, folin W. Gentry, J. H. Brooks, and others.
